

Draft Quota Is Largest Since Korean War

WASHINGTON (AP)—The draft quota for September was set today at 25,000 men, biggest since the end of the Korean War.

The Defense Department announcement for the September call reflected the first full-scale manpower impact of the military buildup, although a smaller increase had been made in the August call through revision of the initially announced quota.

As usual all draftees for September 1961, immediately after getting ready to build up three training divisions into combat units.

The announcement said, "The Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force do not intend to place calls with Selective Service during September."

The September call is the largest since June 1953 when the quota was 32,000.

It will bring the total of men who have been drafted since September 1950, immediately after the outbreak of the Korean War to 2,640,950.

The Pentagon said the September quota is calculated against the expected input of manpower from volunteer and re-enlistment sources.

New Reading System in Lower Grades

James H. Jones, superintendent of schools, announced today that the phonetic keys to reading that were introduced in the first grades of Hope school last year will be continued and take in the second grade this year, with plans to include third and fourth grades the next two years.

The new approach to reading met wide approval from first grade teachers and patrons.

An evaluation of the reading program at the end of the year gave every indication that the pupils were reading better. Interest in reading was increased, and skills were developed. The individual child was able to pronounce new words; vocabularies were increased, comprehension and speed were improved.

It is felt that this new approach to word attack gives the child a better foundation to move ahead with more confidence into our basic reading program. More supplemental reading material must be made available as more interest has been stimulated in reading.

Teachers have endorsed this program, although more work is required, both in preparation, and presentation of the materials. Teachers realize that this plan will not solve all the reading problems, but believe it will definitely strengthen our program.

Parents are requested to cooperate with their teachers in this effort to improve the reading program. Their genuine interest in the progress of the individual child, listening to his oral reading, and giving encouragement to his efforts, will be helpful.

Draft May Get 250 Arkansans

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas' share of a newly-announced national draft call of 25,000 men probably will be 250 to 300 men, state Selective Service headquarters said today.

Col. Fred M. Croom, state Selective Service director, said the official call would not reach state headquarters for two or three days. The 250-300 estimate was based on last month's U. S. call of 13,000 men, he said.

A call of 250 men from Arkansas would be the highest since the Korean War, as is the national call.

The August induction call in Arkansas initially was for 84 men, but this was increased to 120 men when the national quota was raised as part of a military buildup to meet the Berlin crisis.

Auto Theft Probing to Be Studied

Speakers from 11 states and the District of Columbia will address the ninth International Auto Theft Investigation Seminar to be held in Dallas Aug. 28-31, according to Circuit Judge Lyle Brown, of Hope.

Judge Brown, resident representative of the Southwestern Legal Foundation, announced that the seminar will be sponsored jointly this year by the Foundation and the International Association of Auto Theft Investigators.

Lecturers at the four-day meeting, to be held at the Southwestern Legal Center, will come from all parts of the nation, including California, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Louisiana, Michigan, Missouri, New York, Oklahoma, Ohio, Texas, and Washington, D. C.

Hope and Hempstead county law enforcement officials are expected to send representatives to take advantage of this unusual opportunity for advanced schooling in auto theft investigation.

Cuban Red Has Turn at Latin Meet

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay (AP)—Cuba dropped a hint today she would walk out of the hemisphere economic conference, but it quickly took on the appearance of a maneuver to win Latin-American sympathy.

Ernesto Guevara, the Cuban economics chief, demanded to know whether Cuba would be given a role to play in the $20-billion Alliance for Progress program.

He demanded an answer at once but received none from the chairman of the commission which is studying a declaration to be adopted by this conference when it ends.

Guevara has captured much of the popular and headline attention during discussion of how to hold back threats of communism and Cuban Castroism in Latin America. He spent the morning hopping from one committee room to another. One delegate said, "He has been driving us crazy."

Asked how he interpreted the lack of a reply from the commission chairman to his demand, he said, "I don't know, unless silence is interpreted as 'No.'"

Guevara appeared to be trying to rally support behind the idea Continued on Page Two

Cuban Plane Is Hijacked, 3 Persons Die

BULLETIN
By JOSE MARIA ORLANDO
HAVANA (AP)—Enemies of Fidel Castro attempted to hijack a Cuban airliner in flight Wednesday. A gun battle erupted on board and three persons — including the pilot — were killed and six were wounded. The co-pilot crash-landed in a sugar cane field.

The twin-engine plane, owned by the nationalized Cuban airlines Aerovias Q, had 53 persons aboard when it set out from Havana's Rancho Boyeros Airport Wednesday. It was heading for the Isle of Pines, off Cuba's south coast.

Five minutes after takeoff, the hijackers attempted to force their way into the pilot's cabin and take over the plane, presumably in hopes of heading for the United States.

When the crew and two guards resisted, gunfire broke out. Authorities reported the hijackers fired first and one of the first shots killed the plane's captain, Luis Alvarez Regato.

The other dead were one of the military guards, Silvio Sanchez Almaguer, and one of the hijackers, who was not identified.

Havana Radio did not broadcast news of the incident until this morning, hours after it happened. "While the gunfight went on in the main cabin and terrified passengers ducked for cover, the wounded co-pilot, Alberto Bayo, managed to crash-land safely in a field. The landing gear and propellers were smashed.

Book Store to Be Open August 12

Earl Downs' announced today that the Hope High School bookstore will be open Aug. 22 and 23 at 8:30 a. m. for all 9th and 10th grade students to buy their books, and on the 24th and 25th for the 11th and 12th grade students.

Students should go by the office and pick up a copy of their schedule and carry it to the bookstore to be sure they are purchasing the proper books.

Students should try to buy books from other students. They should buy them with caution. The following changes will be made in text books for 1961-62: 9th grade — Civics & Literature, 10th grade — Plane Geometry & Latin II. All high school students are requested to have their books and supplies purchased by Aug. 30, after which time the bookstore will be open only in the afternoon until Tuesday, Sept. 5. After Sept. 5 the bookstore schedule will be 8 to 8:30 a. m. and 3:30 to 4 p. m.

Paragould Vote Recount Asked

PARAGOULD, Ark. (AP)—Mayor C. A. Wood and Alderman R. H. Harris asked Wednesday for a recount of votes in Tuesday's Democratic primary. The Greene County Democratic Committee said it would devote Friday to rejecting the vote in which an unofficial count gave J. T. Brown a 10-vote edge over Brown and George Textor a one-vote margin over Harris.

Declares Arkla Is Charging Gas Consumers for Taxes That Company Doesn't Pay

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An opposition attorney declared today that Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. is allowing itself too big a credit on gas it produces for its distribution system.

El Dorado City Attorney J. V. Spencer made the statement in reply to a question by Public Service Commissioner John R. Thompson about Spencer's line of investigation in Arkla's $1.2 rate case.

Thompson asked Spencer if the purpose of his examination at that point was to try to show that Arkla's fair field price was too high.

Spencer said that was the purpose. Arkla, by statute, is permitted to include as the cost of gas it produces itself what it would have had to pay had it bought the fuel from some other producer in the same gas field. This is known as the fair field price.

Spencer was cross-examining J. E. Planders of Jefferson City, Mo., a rate consultant for Arkla, for the fourth straight day when the discussion with Thompson arose.

The El Dorado attorney and City Attorney George Holmes Jr. of Pine Bluff represent a group of cities which are trying to have the Public Service Commission set aside the utility's $1.2 million rate increase.

During a recess Spencer said the conversation with Thompson had jumped him somewhat ahead of his planned examination but that he hoped to prove his contention of excessive fair field prices.

Spencer said that if the cities lose before the PSC, the case would be taken to the Arkansas Supreme Court.

Spencer mounted a vigorous attack Wednesday on Planders' contention that Arkla is earning $1,137,939 less a year than it is entitled to under a Supreme Court ruling that a utility can earn 6.34 per cent.

Planders testified Monday that Arkla's earnings are short even Continued on Page Two

Ark. Loan Is Called a Union Buster

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Bob Wilson, R-Calif., charged Wednesday that the Kennedy administration's area redevelopment program is a "union buster."

Wilson, chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, pointed specifically to a redevelopment project at Gassville, Ark. He said a $129,000 grant and a $31,000 loan would enable the Mar-Bax Shirt Co. to open a non-union shirt shop to compete with textile firms in other areas of the country.

"During his campaign for the presidency, Sen. Kennedy plainly promised to halt the movement of the textile industry from New England to cheap labor areas of the country," Wilson said in a prepared statement. "But the depressed areas legislation which he sponsored and pushed through Congress not only subsidized such moves, but helps to set up union-busting shops in these areas."

Wilson said the company which controls Mar-Bax, Capital Shirt Co. of New York, operated a non-union shop in Tennessee and one in Jamaica "where workers are paid about $7 a week."

Wilson asserted at the Amalgamated Clothing Workers Union has protested the administration action "in subsidizing the Arkansas non-union shop with federal funds."

The redevelopment loan to Gassville was to finance a water system without which Mar-Bax could not have located there.

UN Meet Called on Tunisia Issue

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld today called a special session of the U.N. General Assembly to meet Aug. 21 on the French-Tunisian dispute.

Hammarskjöld acted after a majority of the 98 U.N. members had approved an Asian-African request for the extraordinary session.

Uruguay became the 50th member to signify approval of the session.

Hammarskjöld immediately dispatched telegrams to all delegations announcing that the session would convene at 10:30 a.m. Aug. 12.

Total Ban Studied by E. Germany

BERLIN (AP) — Communist groups in East Germany today demanded a total ban on East Germans traveling to West Berlin.

The proposal to close the escape hatch to the West came from new factory committees formed to help dam the tide of fleeing refugees.

The Communist regime already has limited permits for official or private travel, reinforced police guards to intercept the refugees, and taken measures to intimidate the estimated 80,000 East Germans who commute to work in West Berlin daily.

But about 2,000 refugees a day are slipping through the Red net to West Berlin.

The official East German news agency ADN announced formation of the factory committees "to combat the trading in humanity," the way the Communists describe the exodus.

A private West Berlin intelligence agency reported the first act of these committees was to demand a total ban on travel to West Berlin or West Germany "until the situation is normal again." Such "spontaneous demands" are often used by the Communists to justify official action.

The East German press, radio and television kept up an intensive campaign branding the refugees as criminals and enemies of socialism.

The factory committees have the role of watching their fellow workers and stepping in with persuasion when they suspect an intention to flee. Workers who ignore Communist advice are to be dealt with administratively, which means police action.

West German officials said they may have to open another camp to cope with the stream of refugees.

Nearly 150,000 Germans have fled to the West so far this year — compared with 200,000 for all 1960 — and the tide is showing no sign of ebbing.

Once across the line, the refugees are being flown to West Germany.

JFK Pledges U.S. Will Try Peaceful Solution on Berlin

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy declared today the United States will use "every diplomatic means" to try to find a peaceful solution of the Berlin dispute with the Soviet Union.

And at another point in his news conference he said tersely: "We're hopeful" of a peaceful solution to the problem.

Kennedy said he thought a summit meeting with Soviet Premier Khrushchev would not be useful unless the groundwork were carefully laid beforehand. But he said a summit session of Western government chiefs should be held if necessary in "coordinating out policy."

Kennedy replied with evidently deliberate restraint to questions about speeches made by Khrushchev this week. The Soviet premier has lashed at the United States and its allies because of their announced determination not to yield their war-won rights to stay in West Berlin.

Khrushchev accused the Allies of aggressive intent toward Russia and in a rocket-rattling Moscow statement, Wednesday night, he threatened to develop a nuclear super bomb more powerful than anything in existence.

Kennedy said there was no new policy position in Khrushchev's latest statement — no new proposals although Khrushchev "did speak of negotiations."

On this point Kennedy said "it is the strong conviction of the United States government that every diplomatic means must be employed" to see if a peaceful solution can be achieved.

"The Western powers, the President added, must see whether they can get a "more precise definition" of ideas which Khrushchev has expressed about Berlin.

Kennedy declined to appraise the results of allied harmony talks conducted in Paris during the past week by Secretary of State Dean Rusk. Rusk is scheduled to return home tonight after meeting with British, French, Italian, West German and other Western policymakers. Kennedy said he could answer the question more precisely after talking with Rusk.

Questioned about the flight of East German refugees and whether this presented a problem of an explosion in Germany, Kennedy said the flow of people from East to West is an illuminating example of what people think about living under the Communist system in Eastern Europe.

Kennedy said this country has not attempted either to encourage or to discourage the refugee flow.

Money Saved for Years Is Snatched

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Mrs. Emma Smith, 53, saved for 16 years so she could start a new life in California.

Wednesday she lost her $1,350 nest egg to a purse snatcher at Capital and Main, the city's busiest intersection.

Mrs. Smith, a Negro, told police a Negro man grabbed her purse, ran two blocks with her in pursuit, then disappeared into an office building. She found her purse in the lobby, but the money was gone.

Police put out a pickup order for the unidentified man and for a Negro woman who engaged Mrs. Smith in conversation as she was withdrawing the money at a bank and accompanied her to the snatch scene.

The woman disappeared while Mrs. Smith was chasing the man.

Mrs. Smith, who has worked as a cook and saved religiously since her husband died in 1945, had planned to quit work next Tuesday to start for Los Angeles.

The charges were on two counts and said the Frenchman hijacked a Pan American World Airways DC-8 jetliner Wednesday and forced it at gunpoint to fly to Havana. They were filed before U.S. Commissioner Roger Edward Da-

Kennedy in Defense of Sen. Fulbright

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy said today the chief objective of a Defense Department directive about public statements by military officers is to prevent the "exploitation" of service leaders.

Kennedy told his news conference in response to questions that he believes Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., performed a useful service in sending the defense department a memorandum on the matter.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, told Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara that public forums held by the military in some cases were being given over to the dissemination of "radical" ideas by speakers who regard the internal communist menace as greater than the external threat.

The Fulbright memorandum has been criticized by some Republicans and Democrats, including Rep. Dale Alford, D-Ark., as having contributed to a Defense Department directive they say has "muzzled" military officers on foreign and domestic issues.

Kennedy said McNamara had requested the memorandum from Fulbright. He added that the administration will be glad to hear from other senators and congressmen on the issue.

As far as he is concerned, Kennedy said, he regards it as one of the wisest actions of the constitutional founders to have kept the military out of politics.

Coroner to Rule on Couple's Death

HELENA, Ark. (AP)—A ruling was expected today from Dr. J. W. Butts, Phillips County coroner, in the deaths of a prominent Helena couple whose bodies were found Wednesday on a rural road.

Deputy Sheriff Ed Yhankey and Frank Lawhon said Warren Spivey Jr., apparently shot his wife with a shotgun and then turned the weapon on himself.

Mrs. Spivey, 32, suffered two wounds in the chest.

Officers said the couple separated several days ago after returning here from a trip to Texas and Mrs. Spivey had been staying with her mother near Helena.

Spivey's car was found blocking the one Mrs. Spivey was driving. The deputies said Mrs. Spivey apparently had left her car to talk with her husband when the shootings occurred.

The shotgun was found near the bodies.

President to Reply to Khrushchev

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy was expected to reply today at a news conference to the latest blast against the West from Soviet Premier Khrushchev in the dispute over Berlin.

Kennedy scheduled a mid-morning news conference. Officials have indicated for several days that he would be prepared to discuss the Berlin crisis and Khrushchev's statements about it.

The Soviet premier in a major speech on Monday accused the Western powers of threatening the Soviet Union with armed force, reasserted his intention to sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany and at the same time called for negotiations to end the crisis peacefully.

In welcoming spaceman Gherman Titov to Moscow Wednesday Khrushchev again declared he would sign the separate peace pact as planned. He coupled this with a warning to the world that the Soviet Union could make a super nuclear bomb and deliver it by rocket on target.

U.S. officials said the Soviet premier seems to be doing his utmost to frighten the West into yielding to his Berlin demands and at the same time to confuse the issue by picturing the United States and its NATO allies as potential aggressors against the Soviet Union.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk is due back late tonight from a series of meetings with Allied leaders in Europe. He conferred at Paris on Berlin military and diplomatic plans with the foreign ministers of Britain, France and West Germany and reported to the 15-nation NATO council there. Then he flew to Italy for talks with Premier Amintore Fanfani and German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. Fanfani has just returned from meetings with Khrushchev in Moscow.

Rusk is expected to report to Kennedy Friday.

Declars Arkla

after the $1.2 million rate increase put into effect April 1 is figured into the earnings structure.

Spencer asked Flanders Wednesday how Arkla computed its taxes in figuring its profits. Flanders said Arkla deducted a 27 1/2 percent depletion allowance and a deduction for intangible drilling expenses for tax purposes but that he hadn't included these deductions when figuring taxes for rate-making purposes.

Spencer promptly charged that Arkla was charging its rate payers for taxes it doesn't pay. Flanders said this wasn't true; that the deductions pertained to production of gas and Arkla was permitted to remove property devoted to production of gas from its rate base.

Spencer produced a transcript of a 1955 Arkla industrial rate case in which Flanders was a witness for the industrial firms. In that case, Flanders said he was opposed to elimination of tax deductions.

Spencer also challenged the manner in which Flanders had credited Arkla with income from the sale of gas to other utilities. Flanders said he had listed the income at the same price which it costs Arkla to purchase and produce gas, not the price at which the gas actually was sold as he run for specific positions in November, 1962, even if it is in a statewide race. A statewide election may be forced because a state congressional redistricting act has been referred to a vote of the people and may not come up for a vote until November, 1962.

of Cuba taking part in and benefiting from the program, being careful not to offend Latin delegates too much. The idea he is trying to put over is that Latin America is all one family and that one member cannot be excluded from a hemisphere program.

The United States has no liking for the idea of Cuban participation in a Latin-American development program designed to hold back the influence of the Cuban revolution in its alliance with world communism.

The United States also feels Cuba cannot participate in any of the benefits of the development program while the Fidel Castro regime remains in the Soviet camp.

Guevara also stole the spotlight from the rest of the conference Wednesday night and made the most of it.

While supporters of President Kennedy's Alliance for Progress were attending a reception in a nearby hotel, Cuban economic boss Ernesto Guevara held court for the Latin-American press.

The representative of the little did in the 1955 case.

At Spencer's request, Flanders figured out that if he had calculated income as he did in 1955, it would have meant $2.2 million more in income in the cost of service study he prepared and testified about.

The protesting cities have asked the PSC to disallow the increase and order Arkla to make a refund. The company boosted its minimum bill to each customer from $1.10 to $1.80 a month.

Caribbean island of six million people held the spotlight alone during this period of the Inter-American Economic Conference—whose chief aim is to offset Cuba's revolutionary influence on Latin America's 200 million people.

Guevara had nothing new to say. Most of it was a repetition of Cuban and Communist propaganda. He insisted that the United States is blind to the realities of Latin America, and that because of this the socialist—meaning Communist—revolution on the continent is just around the corner. He said revolution would come in Latin America as a protest against the past and present but that it would become "socialist" immediately as new governments are installed.

This is standard Marxist-Leninist "national liberation" propaganda, and the United States is doing little on the popular level to combat it.

There has been a considerable amount of enthusiasm generated here for the U.S. program, which envisions the investment of more than $20 billion by the United States and other foreign sources in Latin America in the next 10 years if these countries take steps necessary to develop their potentials and join the war against poverty, misery and illiteracy.

But the Alliance for Progress has yet to step down to the lower levels of the Latin-American population. Guevara and the Communists have not lost sight of those levels and their potential for revolution.

In essence, that seems to be the meaning and reason for the Cuban's appearance at a conference where otherwise he obviously does not belong. He is a revolutionary figure in the midst of representatives of a class search-

MOP Buys Stock in C&E Line

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Missouri Pacific Railroad today purchased 14 per cent of the capital stock and other securities of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois Railroad for an estimated $1.5 million.

MoPac said the package included convertible general mortgage 5 per cent bonds totaling $210,000; income debentures amounting to $248,000; 22,600 shares of class A stock; and 48,604 shares of common stock.

The acquisition represents 14 per cent of C&E's voting control. The stock and securities were acquired from the estate of J. R. Hamack, Kansas City, Mo., investor, who was a director of C&E.

In a statement MoPac said it bought the securities "to protect its interests after learning they were being offered to three other railroads."

At one time MoPac considered merger plans with C&E, but talks were discontinued several months ago.

MoPac's announcement said its C&E purchase "will have no effect on the merger studies now being conducted with the Illinois Central Railroad."

Miss Mary Jean Sparks To Wed Coleatus Edward Noyes
Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sparks, of Little Rock and Hope, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Jean, to Coleatus Edward Noyes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Edward Noyes, of Abbott, Ark.

The bride-elect attended Baylor University, Waco, Tex., during her freshman and sophomore years and will be a senior student in the Department of Home Economics at the University of Arkansas in September. At the present time she is serving as a junior home economist for the State Extension Service in the Pulaski County office. Mr. Noyes attended Ft. Smith Junior College, Ft. Smith, and is now affiliated with the Retail Credit Company in Fayetteville. The wedding will be an event of early September in the Otto Whittington Chapel of the Immanuel Baptist Church in Little Rock.

Circle No. 3 W. S. C. S. Meets
Circle No. 3 W. S. C. S. of the 1st Methodist Church met Monday morning August 7, in the home of Mrs. Earl O'Neal. The leader, Mrs. Edwin Wain, opened the meeting with prayer and conducted the business session. An inspiring worship was brought by Mrs. W. C. Miller. Mrs. Martin Fox, Sr., presented an interesting and informative program. At the close of the meeting the hostess served iced punch and cookies to 15 members and 2 guests. Mrs. Bob Jones and little daughter Mary Elizabeth of Demmitt, Tex.

Miss Faye Willis And Donald Wayne Kunze Exchange Vows
On Monday night, July 24 at 7 p. m. Miss Faye Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Willis of Hope and Donald Wayne Kunze, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kunze of Waco, Texas, exchanged vows in the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Carl G. Willis of Summers, Ark., brother of the bride, performed the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Billy Wayne Mitchell played the bridal march.

Mrs. Leonard Marbury

In a lovely candlelight ceremony, the wedding of Miss Frances Billingsley, daughter of Mr. Carl Billingsley of Prescott and the late Mrs. Billingsley, to Leonard Marbury, son of Mr. Charlie Marbury of Arkadelphia and the late Mrs. Marbury, was solemnized in the Bethel Baptist Church of Route Five, Prescott, Friday evening, Aug. 4, at 8 o'clock.

Rev. N. C. Bryan performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with seven-branched candelabras holding white tapers and entwined with palms. Baskets of white gladioli and palms completed the setting. Mrs. Jan Copeland of Arkadelphia provided the nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Tilmann Martin of Lufkin, Texas, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." As the bridal couple knelt at the end of the ceremony, she sang "Prayer Perfect."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length gown of white nylon lace over satin with a fitted bodice lace jacket with long-sleeves tapering to petal points over the wrists. Her waist-length illusion veil fell from a pearl tiara and she carried a white Bible topped with an orchid and Stephanotis. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

Mrs. Donald Ward, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a pale blue sheath dress of lace over satin and carried a bouquet of vanda orchids. John Marbury, nephew of the groom, was best man.

Misses Patty Ward and Janet Billingsley, nieces of the bride, served as candlelighters. They wore pale pink silk organza dresses and their wrist corsages were of white carnations. Herschel Billingsley, brother of the bride, and Roger Urrey, nephew of the bride, were ushers.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cope. The wedding table was covered with an imported cut-work table cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom and encircled by ferns and white carnations. The blue punch bowl and cups and blue napkins bearing the names of the bride and groom and white tapers in crystal holders were also used. Mrs. Herschel Billingsley presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. G. D. Royston, Jr., served the cake. Mrs. Bob Bonds and Mrs. Tilmann Martin also assisted in extending courtesies in the dining room. Miss Jean Billingsley, niece of the bride, was in charge of the bride's book.

For travel, the bride chose a navy blue silk shantung dress with white accessories. She pinned the orchid from her bridal bouquet to her shoulder. After a wedding trip to Colorado the couple will be at home in Port Hood, Texas, where M/Sgt. Marbury is stationed.

DOROTHY DIX

Her Love Is Dead

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: After 15 years of marriage and bearing my husband three children, my love for him is cold as the grave. He killed it with abuse.

The children, like I, live in mortal terror of his vile temper. Even my son says, "Mommy, I hate Daddy."

We, the children and I, would leave today, if I had the money. But, as it is, I'm helpless and my husband makes sure it remains this way. He never has given me a single penny, paying every bill himself. He has never given a cent of spending money for me or the children.

When, after one of his tirades, I cry, "The children and I are going this time," he laughs scornfully, then asks, "Who'll support you?" He tells his girl friend I died when our son was born and denies our daughters are his. What can I do? —Loving Mother.

Dear Loving Mother: Know there is always a way out. Sit down quietly and think things through. What you seek is independence. In other words, the money to free you and the children from the enslavement of a husband. Jot down on a memo pad way in which you might earn money. List your capabilities.

Plan a life for you and the children, irrespective of your husband. Ask the bar association in your city to recommend a lawyer. Once you take a decisive step you'll be surprised at the ways which open up to help you toward your goal. For one thing, you'll find yourself suddenly endowed with the moral strength to handle your husband's brainstorms and see them for what they are, tantrums of a perennial adolescent. Your very attitude may wake him up in time but don't let that deter you from your goal — independence. I am sending you my leaflet on Women At Work.

Dear Helen: My problem is a matter of life and death to me. My grandfather will pay for my college education. I should like to go to a college where the students have to study hard for what they get. It is my ambition to major in subjects which will help me toward my chosen career: politics. When I say I intend to run for Congress or hold public office of some sort, my Mom laughs. "That'll be the day!" Then Dad comes back with, "You can never tell, maybe our daughter will be the first woman President."

Friends tell me I'm crazy, or else they look blank, as if they didn't know what I was talking about. I need encouragement. Am I aiming too high? What do you advise? —Big Question Mark.

Dear Big Question: Keep on aiming for the stars. If being Madame President is your goal, stick to it. Most of the men who are Senators or Representatives hold degrees in law. Not all the women do, but a knowledge of the law does help if you plan a political career. Look up the local political club of your party. Make friends with its leaders. Learn something of practical politics first. In that way, you'll find out what courses you will need to further your career when you do enter college.

Send your problem to Helen

Colony Age Limit Is Rejected

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Legislative Council Tuesday rejected a move to clear the way for selling an age limit on persons admitted to the Children's Colony at Conway.

The council defeated a motion by Sen. Ellis Pagan of Little Rock to ask Gov. Orval E. Faubus to include the matter in his call to a forthcoming fiscal session of the legislature.

Pagan and Sen. Roy Biales of Mena criticized colony officials last week after they learned the colony plans eventually to care for retarded persons of all ages. They wanted the age limit set at 21.

The colony's present admissions policy sets a 21-year age limit but this is because facilities are limited. The act as creating the colony sets no age limit.

Defense Measure Virtually Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate House Conference Committee today approved virtually all of the $3 billion-plus in extra defense funds asked by President Kennedy to stiffen military forces because of the Berlin crisis.

Advocates of manned-bomber power retained most of the Senate increases aimed at keeping production lines open for the present heavy long-range bombers and spurring development of a B70 future jet bomber as a complete weapons system.
Only one Kennedy request, $207,600,000 to carry out Civil Defense activities recently shifted to the Defense Department, remained in dispute.

Se. A. Willis Robertson, D-Va., leader of the Senate conferees, said they insisted on retaining this fund.
Rep. George H. Macon, D-Tex., head of the House negotiators, said he would seek a separate House vote on this item.

The compromise bill, excluding the Civil Defense funds, would provide about $46½ billion to carry on Defense Department activities in the fiscal year which began July 1.

It may not be fair to judge until one has seen all the new shows but it is hard to believe that the forthcoming crop of new shows will be much of an improvement over last season's. In the first place, many of the action shows are faithfully following lines of successful series in other years, notably "Dragnet" and "The Untouchables."

A few comedy programs, however, sound promising, particularly the Gertrude Berg-Cedric Hardwicke series, the Dick Van Dyke show and Shirley Booth's "Hazel."

One thing for sure, constant criticism has banished the fam-

August Month of Promise in Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — August is usually the month if the big promise in television — a time when producers, performers and press agents can hardly wait to uncork their winners for winter.

The TV writer generally winds up August with a notebook full of superlatives: predictions of sure-fire hit shows, great new stars, dynamic new concepts.
But for some reason—perhaps a combination of reasons—excitement about the approaching season is lacking this year. Press agents and producers are talking about their new products as reverbally as bankers discussing investments.

Last year at this time, young actor Chu Gulager was predicting self-confidently that his Billy the Kid role in "The Tall Man" would make him the nation's male sex symbol. This year when I asked various TV people to name future sex symbols, they looked at me with apprehension and tried to change the subject.
A year ago, new adventure series were described as "hard-hitting" and "action-packed." Their heroes were "straight-shooting" and "Iron-fisted." This year's crop sound like public service and educational programs — to alert and inform the public about the evils of crime, organized and otherwise.

Scratch a producer these days and you'll find a man yearning to use TV drama for social commentary, and it's just a coincidence that the organized crime, racketeering and usury on the waterfront.

It may not be fair to judge until one has seen all the new shows but it is hard to believe that the forthcoming crop of new shows will be much of an improvement over last season's. In the first place, many of the action shows are faithfully following lines of successful series in other years, notably "Dragnet" and "The Untouchables."

A few comedy programs, however, sound promising, particularly the Gertrude Berg-Cedric Hardwicke series, the Dick Van Dyke show and Shirley Booth's "Hazel."

One thing for sure, constant criticism has banished the fam-

Mr. Hoover, at 87, Says U. S. Ready

NEW YORK (AP) — Herbert Hoover celebrates his 87th birthday today, firm in the conviction that Americans "are ready for any emergency on earth."

Hoover, who has lived longer than any other American president except John Adams (who died at the age of 90), scoffs at the idea that Americans are becoming soft.

"The people, he said, are 'as deeply patriotic as they've ever been.'"
At a news conference in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel Wednesday Hoover discussed a wide variety of topics ranging from the Berlin crisis to baseball. His face ruddy and unlined, he appeared at ease and took an optimistic view of everything he discussed.

Besides writing two books last year, the former Republican president attended 26 public occasions, made 14 speeches—none ghost written, replied to 34,805 letters, received 11 awards and traveled to Florida and California.
This was in addition to helping administer the Boys Clubs of America and serving on 12 boards of trustees or directors of educational and scientific institutions.

How does he keep up the pace?
"The only way to lead a satisfactory life when you get old is not to retire but to work."

Party Is Banned

LUSAKA, Northern Rhodesia, (AP)—The British governor of Northern Rhodesia today banned the territory's leading nationalist party in areas where African extremists have been accused of arson and other terrorist acts.

A government spokesman said the United Nations Independence Party (UNIP) has been banned in the northern province, plagued by violence since Friday. The UNIP Youth League was banned in the western province, scene of sabotage and skirmishes between armed Africans and police.

Pink and Blue Shower For Mrs. Duke

Mrs. J. W. White and Miss Tonna Taylor honored Mrs. Bruce Duke with a "pink and blue" shower Tuesday night, August 8 in the home of Mrs. White. The honoree was presented a corsage of items to be used for the coming arrival.

Zinnias and nasturtiums decorated the home. When several games were played, those winning prizes were Misses Joyce Riley, Sara Garrett, and Judy Rae McDowell.

Many gifts were presented to Mrs. Duke during the evening. The refreshments served to 20 were punch, cookies, and nuts.

Tuesday Bridge Club

Miss Katherine Arnold and Mrs. Helen McRae Barlow were guests of the Tuesday Bridge Club that met with Mrs. R. T. White on August 8. Roses and daisies decorated the home. When scores were tallied, Mrs. Syd McMath was high and Mrs. Barlow was second high.

Bridge Club Meets

Mrs. Dewey Camp entertained her Tuesday Bridge Club August 8 and used crepe myrtle as floral decoration. Two tables of players included three club guests, Mrs. Garrett Story, Mrs. R. E. Cooper, and Mrs. Tom Kinser.

The highest scorer for the afternoon was Mrs. C. C. Lewis. One of the guests, Mrs. Cooper, won the prize. The hostess served a dessert plate.

Bridal Shower For Judy Kaye Wright

A supper and bridal shower for Miss Judy Kaye Wright, bride-elect of Tim Walter of Abilene, Tex., was held at the First Christian Church on August 15. Members of the C. W. F. who served as hostesses were Mesdames Malcolm Porterfield, A. L. Park, McRae Cox, Charles Cox, Mike Kelly, B. L. Rettig, Raymond Robins, Roland Pearson, Garland O'Bryant, and Cline Franks.

The honoree wore a black jacket dress trimmed with white and pinned a white carnation corsage at her shoulder. She was the recipient of many lovely and useful gifts from her many friends at the church. Mrs. Franks, one of the hostesses, is from Payetteville, and one out-of-town guest was Mrs. Bill Lusk of Little Rock.

Yellow and white was the color scheme used for the serving table. The yellow cloth was decorated with an arrangement of white and gold zinnias and clematis. The delicious buffet supper, centered around a salad plate and either iced tea or coffee, was served to about 35.

Population, Industry Meet Headon

CHICAGO (AP)—Projections of the needs of mid-America's explosive population growth and industrial expansion meet in a head-on collision along a short stretch of Lake Michigan shoreline near Chicago.

The question is who has the best right to the disputed land—thousands of metropolitan area workers seeking recreation or scenic beauty or new industrial plants?

It is this area — the Indiana Dunes — that conservationists, scientists and dune lovers are seeking to turn into a national preserve.

Opposing groups want to have a deep-water harbor built in the dunes. They envision the development of new steel plants in the area to provide thousands of new jobs. They claim the dunes area can accommodate both a harbor and a national park.

A leader of the save the dunes movement is Sen. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill. His efforts in Congress to make the dunes area a national preserve touched off a controversy that divided communities in the area and placed high ranking Democrats in opposing positions.

Douglas wants to preserve what he calls "a natural playground and wildlife area of great beauty."

He contends the area is a natural recreation grounds for the 6½ million people in the Chicago metropolitan area "and also for the generations yet unborn."

The Illinois senator toured the dunes area recently with a delegation from Washington including Secretary of Interior Stewart L. Udall.

Udall concluded that much of the land is worth preserving in its natural state and added, "I'll do all I can to work out whatever problems stand in the way."

Dodgers Keep Game Lead Over Redlegs

By ED WILKS
 Associated Press Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Dodgers retained their one-game lead over Cincinnati in the National League by beating the Milwaukee Braves 6-3 Wednesday night as right-hander Don Drysdale hit a grand slam homer, allowed only four hits and struck out 11.
 The Reds, after losing four of their last five, got back on the beam again against Philadelphia, 5-0, for a 16-0 record against the Phils. That's one shy of the NL record for consecutive victories against one club in one season, set by Pittsburgh against the Reds in 1936.

San Francisco defeated the Chicago Cubs 6-5, on Matty Alou's ninth-inning homer, and St. Louis stopped Pittsburgh 4-0, on a grand slam by Julio Javier.

In the American League, New York beat Los Angeles 2-0 and stayed three games ahead of the Detroit Tigers, who won 8-2 at Chicago. Kansas City edged Baltimore, 2-1; Cleveland defeated Washington 3-1, and Boston beat Minnesota 5-4.

Drysdale (10-6) had trouble only from Joe Adcock, who drove in all of the Braves' runs with a pair of homers. The first tied it 1-1 in the second inning, but Drysdale then broke it up with his bases-loaded shot—the 18th home run of his career and fourth of the year—off Don Nottebart (3-6). It was the first slam by a Dodger pitcher since Ery Palica connected for one back in 1959.

Right-hander Joey Jay (16-7), the NL's top winner, blanked the last place Phils on six hits for Philadelphia's 13th consecutive defeat, one short of the club record. Elio Chacon walked and scored the Reds' first run in the second inning off Don Ferrarese (2-9), and then belted his first major league homer in the fifth.
 The Cards had been blanked on four hits by southpaw Joe Gibbon (8-7) for seven innings before Javier teed off for his first major league slam. The Bucs, who walked St. Louis 10-0 in their last meeting, were shut out on seven hits by winner Curt Simmons (7-7) and Ed Bauta.

Alou was 3-for-5 and drove in two runs for the Giants, breaking a 5-5 tie with his home run off losing reliever Barney Schultz (5-3). Stu Miller (9-3) won it in relief.

Nashville Beats Vols Handily

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A slashing single up the middle will probably haunt John Romonosky for some time to come.
 The ground burner off the heavy bat of Macon's Tony Bartlome was the only safety the Peaches managed off the 32-year-old Nashville hurler in a Southern Association game Wednesday night.

Romonosky was so tough that the Peaches got only four men on base, three on walks. Macon didn't get a runner past first as the Vols got the decision, 2-0. Nashville also beat the Peaches in the first game of a twin bill, 8-2.

Shreveport halted Atlanta's winning streak at six by dumping the Crackers 3-1 in the other game of an abbreviated schedule. The Birmingham-at-Chattanooga game was rained out and Mobile and Little Rock got the night off.

Hostilities are to resume in the same locations with the same combatants Thursday night. Chattanooga and Birmingham scheduled a doubleheader to make up for the postponement.

Detroit turned a close game into a rout with a five-run ninth that beat the Chicago White Sox 8-2 Wednesday night and kept the Tigers within three games of first place New York in the American League. The Yankees won their seventh in a row by beating the Los Angeles Angels 2-0 on the four-hit pitching of Jim Coates.

Kansas City dropped third-place Baltimore 12½ games behind New York by beating the Orioles 2-1. Cleveland defeated Washington by 3-1 on Gary Bell's three-hitter, and Boston beat Minnesota 5-4.

In the National League, the Los Angeles Dodgers clung to a one-game edge by whipping Milwaukee 8-3 after second place Cincinnati rapped Philadelphia 5-0. San Francisco defeated the Chicago Cubs 6-5, and St. Louis beat Pittsburgh 4-0.

Right-hander Frank Lary (16-6) pitched his 15th complete game, tops in the majors, for the Tigers, allowing just five hits. Rocky Colavito's 31st home run gave Detroit a 2-1 lead in the third inning, but Jim Landis then tied it in the fourth with his 16th home run. That's the way it stood until the eighth, when Al Kaline got to Cal McLish (7-11) for a homer.

The Tigers got their five in the ninth on six walks and a pair of two-run singles.

Ted Bowfield (8-4) of the Angels held the Yankees hitless until Mickey Mantle led off the fifth inning with a single. Heri Mick came around on a single by Elston Howard and a sacrifice fly by Bill Skowron.

A single by Jim Rivera and Leo Posada's double gave the A's the winning run in the seventh inning at Baltimore against Jack Fisher (5-11). Jerry Walker (5-8) checked his former mates on four singles.

Bell (8-11) walked two and struck out eight while giving up a pair of singles and a first-inning home run by rookie Bud Zipsel. The Indians came from behind in the fourth, beating John Gabler (3-4) on Johnny Romano's two-run single.

Mike Fornieles saved it for the Red Sox, retiring Jose Valdivielso, Bill Tuttle and Ted Lepcio on five pitches in the ninth. Gene Conley (6-10) won it. Jack Kralick (10-8) was the loser.

Facts of Life Around Arkansas

By BOB HARING

Associated Press Staff Writer
 Patrolman Dan Pippin of El Dorado was naturally startled when the caller insisted on reporting the theft of a house.

But the complainant, the Rev. Dan Harden, was serious — and quite right. Police found that a three-room house was indeed missing from the rear of a lot where it was supposed to be.

Harden, pastor of the Church of God, lives next door, but the lot is wooded and he didn't notice the theft until he went to check on some fencing.

Police went house-hunting and soon found the missing building. They also found some neighbors who had seen the theft, but who had figured that the persons working to jack up the house and load it aboard a truck had been instructed by Harden to move it.

Harden said he has no intention of moving his other house—in which he lives—and asked neighbors to let him know if anyone started to move it.

Hijacker Is Hailed by the Cubans

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A pistol-waving hijacker, described as wild-haired and insane-looking, drew salutes and cheers from Cuban soldiers who arrested him, a passenger related.

Glenn White, a Detroit auto executive, said "my first reaction was this guy was sick—awfully sick."

"This fellow with the wild hair ran down the aisle."

"I saw him stick an awfully big gun up against the steward's heart soon after the Mexico City takeoff of the Pan American jetliner," White said.

"He jumped through into the cockpit and slammed the door. That was the last we saw of him until Cuban police escorted him from the jet at Havana."

"I and some others tried to figure out how to grab the plane ourselves. But we decided against it."

"Pan American opened the bar, and everybody had a drink and just relaxed."

"Right after we landed, this fellow was taken out of the plane and those soldiers on the ground saluted and cheered him as he walked toward the terminal."

Cuban authorities identified him as Alberto Charles Cadon, 25, a French Algerian, but the FBI said he was Paris-born and came to the United States in 1957.

Fector Vioni, 53, Richmond, Ind., attorney, said "A blue streak—the hijacker—shot down the aisle past me, backed the steward against a seat and ... kicked open the cockpit door."

"I don't think you would say there was any panic, although I think most of us were plenty nervous."

Plane Capt. Carl Ballard of Houston, Tex., said Cadon threatened us several times. We were in great danger of being shot—not intentionally, but by accident. He said he'd kill us, and he said that when the problem came up we were not to land for fuel. He told us we'd crash first."

Nobolman Foreign Minister Julio Cesar Turbay Ayala, one of the passengers, gave a terse account of the hijacking exploit.

"Five minutes after leaving Mexico City I saw a passenger rushing down the aisle from the back of the cabin. He had a pistol in his hand. He argued with a crewman. Then he pushed his foot in the door to the pilot's cabin and opened it. He closed it behind him with the two pilots inside."

Fidel Castro personally escorted Turbay from Havana airport to the plane for its trip to Miami. Turbay quoted the Cuban prime minister as expressing mortification over the hijacking.

"This should not happen again," Turbay said Castro told him.

"On Aug. 4 I sent a note to the United States government asking that steps be taken to prevent recurrence of mutual hijacking."

The mayor waited for the couple. And waited. And waited. Finally he decided the would-be bride and groom had backed out. He's still waiting to perform that first wedding.

Cuba Action Sidetracks Retaliation

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cuba's prompt release of a hijacked U.S. airliner appeared today to have sidetracked demands by some senators for an American ultimatum to Fidel Castro.

But Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said there still remains the question of whether Cuba will turn over to the United States for prosecution the hijacker of a Pan American jet.

The hijacker himself injected political troubles from a different part of the world into the grab of the plane in skies often troubled during Cuban-American tension.

A crewman of the hijacked plane said Cadon said in the cockpit "I am not a Communist, and not a Cuban. I do not like the way Washington interfered in the Algerian situation. I am taking this means to show my protest."

The Rev. Clifford Shumaker of Miranda, Calif., said that during the Havana layover "we were treated wonderfully. They even put on a musical show for us."

But Vioni expressed bitter resentment at the long Havana stop.

"There was no reason for Castro and his dirty-named pirates to detain us 8½ hours. The plane had fuel. The crew was ready and able to fly," Vioni said.

"They put us all into an air-conditioned room and then once in a while they would bring us some bun sandwiches."

Eleanor Weiss, one of four stewardesses on the hijacked plane, said "The no smoking sign was still posted (for takeoff) when the man rushed down the aisle and got into the cockpit. We were still in the process of going up."

Miss Weiss, from New York City, said it was a while before all the passengers realized what had happened.

"The pursuer made the announcement. There was no message from the cockpit. They couldn't talk, and the door was locked from inside. The passengers were completely calm."

Miss Weiss said the passengers and crew spent their entire Havana interlude in airport waiting rooms.

For A Tall, Cool Party Treat It's Brazilian Coffee-Chocolate

Just when you're longing most for a tall, frosty thirst-quencher, along comes a new cooler from Brazil. Since Brazil is well-known for its coffee, it's not surprising to discover that the beverage is called Brazilian Coffee-Chocolate. However, it may surprise you to know that such a decorative and delicious cooler is extremely easy to come by.

You need only blend chocolate, coffee and milk, sweeten with sugar and top with coffee ice cream. The fact that Brazilian Coffee-Chocolate is designed with guests in mind doesn't mean you can't fix it for yourself. For summer days, it's another wonderful cooler to sip any time during the afternoon or evening.

Car Contract Important to Public

By A. F. MAHAN

DETROIT (AP)—The auto contract negotiations may be far away from your community, but they are important to many people in many places—for instance, you.

That goes whether you own a car or know anyone in an auto plant or an auto company office; whether you are in ranks of management or labor. What comes from the bargaining may affect the size of your paycheck or payroll, whatever its source. Past settlements have affected prices of thousands of seemingly unrelated items.

Combined, the auto plants themselves employ more than half a million. But stretching back through the executive suites, assembly lines, supplier plants and raw material sources, the Automobile Manufacturers Association figures one out of every seven persons in the country owes his job to the auto and related industries such as transportation and gasoline.

But these aren't the only persons affected. Many others get wages patterned after those of a fender-bender in Kenosha or Mahwah or Muscle Shoals or Van Nuys. Almost for certain, the wage pattern will follow in aircraft and farm machinery plants.

The cost of living escalator was introduced first in auto-labor contracts in 1948. Literally millions of dollars in wages have ridden up it since then, including 54

Happy Days Are Here For Babies

Not so long ago, babies and warm weather were a trying combination. Mothers were apt to view apprehensively the critical problems of keeping baby's food sanitary, keeping baby comfortable and protecting him against intestinal upset.

But in recent years, a variety of factors has led to greater warm weather freedom and dividends in relaxation and good health for baby. Among them are increased knowledge and practice of food sanitation, improved methods of food handling and uniform home refrigeration.

In the "good old days" the familiar American watchword for baby's menu—"cover and store in the refrigerator"—was impossible to follow.

Consider baby's first food—milk. Today most babies can be expected to thrive on artificial feeding, whether the doctor prescribes a formula prepared from sterile evaporated milk,

Sees Way to Add to State Surplus

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Budget Director Julian Hogan today proposed a plan which he said could add up to $2 million to the state's available surplus funds.

Hogan suggested taking the money out of a "cushion fund" used to operate estate institutions and agencies during months of low revenue collections. The fund normally is kept at about $8.5 million.

Hogan said, however, that February is the "crisis" month in state finances and that any money remaining in the fund that month could be transferred to the surplus account. The state now counts $11.7 million in surplus.

Hogan said the transfer could be made in late February because it isn't a heavy revenue collection month.

Perry County Rep. Paul Van Dalsem asked Hogan why the entire $8.5 million couldn't be transferred to the surplus account and the cushion fund then be repaid from $18 million which is invested from daily treasury balances. Van Dalsem said this would cost the state some interest, but would provide for a $20 million construction fund.

Hogan declined to comment on

Thinks College Board Good Thing

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—At least one Arkansas college president thinks one type of "overall" board supervising state colleges is a good thing.

Dr. Jack W. Mears, president of Arkansas A. & M. at Monticello, said so Tuesday in reply to a question put to him during an appearance before the Legislative Council.

In New Mexico, where he formerly lived, a board is set up to pass on financial needs of all institutions of higher learning, Mears said.

Autonomy of individual college boards is not affected, and Mears said the plan was helpful to college administrators. He said he could not support a plan that would do away with the individual boards.

Most Arkansas college spokesmen have opposed a general board.

Earlier Tuesday, J. W. Hull, president of Arkansas Tech at Russellville, repeated his opposition in reply to a question by a Council member.

E. Germans Hint at Foul Play

BERLIN (AP)—The East German Communists suggested today that the Rev. Martin Niemöller, seriously injured when he drove his car into a tree in Denmark, was the victim of a "cunningly disguised assassination attempt" by enemies in the West German government.

Referring to political differences the famous Lutheran clergyman had with West German authorities, the East German radio said the "mysterious circumstances" of the accident Monday night strengthened suspicion that enemies in Bonn had tried to kill him.

Niemöller is an outspoken opponent of German rearmament and heads the German Peace Society, the country's largest and most influential pacifist organization.

In 1959 the Defense Ministry filed a slander charge against him for saying there was little difference between soldiers and professional criminals. The charges eventually were dropped.

The pastor also has frequently criticized West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and made a speaking tour of East Germany during the recent big Protestant

To Attend Meet

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson Monday named Chairman J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to head the U.S. Delegation to the British Commonwealth Parliamentary Association meeting in London, Sept. 24-Oct. 1.

Trusty Escapes

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Kenneth Ball, 26, a trusty at Tucker Prison Farm, escaped on foot Monday and was recaptured two hours later at a nearby lake. Ball was sentenced to nine years for burglary and grand larceny in White County in 1957.

rally in West Berlin. Niemöller said he stayed away because he felt the rally—which the Communists opposed—would add to cold war tensions.

Niemöller failed to make a turn while driving Monday night and crashed into a tree, killing his wife and housekeeper. Danish police said because they found neither skid marks nor signs he had applied his brakes, they thought he became ill just before the crash.

The 60-year-old pastor suffered a brain concussion and was in a coma for 24 hours. He regained consciousness Tuesday night and his doctors said they had good hopes he would recover.

Colorful Kitchens

by BEATRICE WEST
Color-styling Consultant

An "international" decorating theme can blend your kitchen and dining area into one attractive unit, especially if you have the new "open" floor plan with little separation between the two rooms.

Select a Parisian, Danish or Japanese motif, and plan your decor around it.

Then work out several menus featuring dishes from the country of your choice. For recipes look to magazines, local utilities, or your community library.

The combination of unusual food and setting will delight your guests.

Whether your kitchen has an "international" motif or a more conventional one, it's smart to have a color plan in mind even if you achieve it step-by-step, over a period of years. Colorful, who offers "personalized" kitchen color plans to home-makers purchasing Colorful gas appliances, reports that many people use the color plans that way.

Did you know you can use fabric as a kitchen wall-covering by having it processed to resist grease and dirt? Wallpaperers can be similarly treated by manufacturers.

Sisters Meet After 24 Years

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. (AP)—Mrs. Barbara Olson of Fort Smith, Ark., is in Independence for a week's vacation with Mrs. Georgia Collins, a sister she hasn't seen in 24 years.

Georgia was 8, Barbara 5 when their mother died and their stepfather turned Georgia over to her mother's sister, Mrs. Margaret Saunders of Kansas City. William Reynolds, the stepfather, and Barbara moved to California.

The sisters lost track of each other but Reynolds set up the reunion 18 months ago when he visited in Kansas City and traced Georgia. He died about a month ago at his home in Los Angeles. Mrs. Olson has four children. Mrs. Collins three and the families are going to have a big reunion picnic Thursday.

Rice Exports

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Foreign Agricultural Service reported today that exports of rice continue at a high level.

Shipments from August, 1960, through last May totaled 19,573,000 hundredweight compared with 17,287,000 in the last like period. The gain was due to larger exports to Asia, notably India, Pakistan, Saudi Arabia and Hong Kong.

Exports to Western Hemisphere markets declined largely because of a sharp drop in sales to Cuba.

The Spring Summit Conference

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Wednesday night at the Pilgrimage Theater: the string summit meeting.

This major musical event brings together the soaring talents of violinist Jascha Heifetz and viola player William Primrose, pianist Leonard Pennario and such other string artists as Virginia Majewski, Arnold Belnick, Joseph Stepansky, Gabor Rejto and Israel Baker.

The reason for the concert: they like to make music.

I drove to Calhoun Pass at the northern tip of Hollywood to observe the preparations. Workmen were busy erecting baffles to keep out the noise of the Hollywood Freeway and a panel overhanging the stage to wait the music to the audience.

Piatigorsky was first to arrive. A husky bear of a man in light slacks and blue coat, he explained why he and Heifetz had chosen the 1,300-seat theater. They could easily fill the 20,000-capacity Hollywood Bowl across the street.

"Ah, but the sound would not be the same," the cellist said. "Chamber music is meant to be played in a small place."

Precisely at the rehearsal hour of 7:30, Heifetz appeared. Handsome with short, curly hair, he wore a dark blue suit and carried his violin case. He gazed at the construction over the stage and commented, "Looks like a gallows."

Heifetz also discussed the hazards of outdoor playing. They include weather—"it must not be too humid"—and aircraft. "I don't know whether they can hear the music up there or not," he said wryly. "But somehow pilots have a talent for flying over during the slow passages, the most important parts."

Primrose, a precise-looking man in dark suit and glasses, appeared with his violin, and the trio walked to the platform.

The two violinists sat upright on the edge of their chairs while Piatigorsky slouched, his big arms enveloping the 1715 Stradivarius. The music sounded perfect but the artists weren't satisfied.

They moved their chairs back a few feet on the stage and played again. Then they tried it on the apron over the orchestra pit. The game of musical chairs continued until they ended up again on the stage, which they deemed acoustically correct for their meeting at the summit.

Cabinet Group to Visit Japan

TOKYO (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk and five other members of President Kennedy's Cabinet will come to Japan in November for economic talks, Foreign Minister Zentaro Kosaka told newsmen today.

Kosaka said the U.S. delegations also would include Secretary of the Treasury C. Douglas Dillon, Commerce Secretary Luther Hodges, Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman, Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall and Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg.

The six Americans will meet with their Japanese counterparts to launch the new U.S.-Japan Economic Council which Kennedy and Premier Hayato Ikeda decided to create when they met recently in Washington.

All That Glitters

Legends of Gold

The "golden touch" of legendary King Midas changed everything to gold! He begged the gods to remove this power when food turned to metal in his mouth—and his daughter became a golden statue at his kiss!

Tales of El Dorado, the City of Gold, lured Spanish "conquistadores" up the Amazon and into South American jungles. Sir Walter Raleigh renewed the search in 1595—but no explorer ever saw the fabulous city!

For centuries Alchemists searched for a mythical formula to turn base metal into gold. Of course, they never found it. But modern science has developed the Karaidad Heavy Gold Electroplating process which adds the striking beauty and luxury of gold to many fashion accessories and better high-style jewelry.

SUSPENSE SETTE

A Short Short Story

A NICE OLD LADY

By LESTER ARNO

Mrs. Thompson gripped her son's hand tightly. "Young man, come along! Squirming will do you no good. You are going to see Miss Ellitch and you are going to apologize to her."

Bobby Thompson, age eight-going-on-nine, frowned at his mother. As he had average intelligence, he didn't reply. He knew that when mother made up her mind to something, talking to her did nothing to advance his cause.

"The very idea," his mother continued. "Acting like a young hoodlum with the rest of those ill-mannered children. Standing in front of Miss Ellitch's house and shouting." Mrs. Thompson paused and asked, "what was that terrible rhyme those children taught you?"

Bobby muttered his reply: "Old Lady Ellitch, Old Lady Ellitch, Pointy nose and stuck-out ears, You're an old witch And your cat's got fleas."

"Disgusting!" said Mrs. Thompson. "Miss Ellitch isn't a witch. There are no witches. She's probably a very nice old lady. Besides, 'ears' and 'fleas' don't rhyme."

"The other kids all know she's a witch. And they say that her old cat has fleas," Bobby made his rebuttal to himself.

"Robert," she said, "that will be enough of that. I will not have you repeating what those naughty children say. Children are cruel young savages and you aren't going to be like them. Just because Miss Ellitch lives in a big, old house alone with her cat and keeps her shades drawn day and night, is no reason to call her a witch. There are no witches, do you understand?"

This time Bobby said nothing. He just increased his pace so that his mother wouldn't seem to be dragging him along, in case some of the other kids happened

A Driver's Guide To Tire Mileage

Safety's the slogan for car drivers, especially during back-to-school days and the variable road conditions of fall and winter months. You'll get safer tire performance and more mileage by following these six tips from the association of Tyres and tire cord producers:

1. Go easy on new tires. Stick to new car speeds—100 miles at 40 mph, then 500 miles at 50 mph to give tire cords a chance to mesh and flex together.
2. Keep tires properly inflated. Generally use 28 lb. for 14- and 15-inch tires, 30 lb. for 16-inch tires.
3. Rotate tires every 2,000 miles for the first 10,000 miles, afterward at 5,000-mile intervals.
4. Don't speed. Sustained high speed builds temperatures, and heat can tear a tire. At a steady 80 mph you can expect only 20% of normal tire wear.
5. Never reduce air pressure when tires are hot. Bleeding (letting air out) only makes them run hotter.
6. Bumping or scraping curbs, turning corners too sharply, stopping too suddenly, always reduce tire life.

Cuban Dollar Changed by Castro Gang

By JOSE MAHIA ORLANDO

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's government will return a maximum of only 10,000 pesos each to most Cubans who turned in large sums during the currency exchange he ordered over the weekend.

The prime minister announced in a TV address Tuesday night that cash turned in above that amount has been confiscated because it was hoarded in violation of a law issued in May.

Castro said an exception is being made for old persons and cripples who would be allowed to draw up to 20,000 pesos.

The Cuban government values the peso officially at $1, its value before Castro revolutionized the economic system. It is worth about 20 cents on free money markets abroad.

The government last weekend suddenly closed Cuba's borders to all travelers and ordered all Cubans to exchange their pesos for a new currency issue. Heads of families were allowed to exchange 200 pesos at the time. The balance of their old money was deposited in special accounts.

Castro said 1,000 pesos now may be withdrawn immediately and the balance of the accounts may be withdrawn—up to the 10,000-peso maximum—at the rate of 100 pesos a month. The aged and cripple may draw 300 pesos a month.

Castro estimated that 3,000 persons deposited more than 10,000 pesos each. It was believed many others who had amassed large sums of cash did not declare it for fear of legal action.

Castro said the limits on deposits and withdrawals applied only to money turned in during the weekend currency exchange. All bank deposits made before the money exchange will be handled normally, he said.

Montana Is Fighting Forest Fire

MISSOULA, Mont. (AP)—Fire-fighting bombers and helicopters teamed up for a spectacular rescue Tuesday of a crew of firemen trapped by an explosive forest fire in Clearwater Forest.

Three men suffered minor injuries. One man died of a heart attack while fighting another of six fires that blazed in vast areas in Idaho and Montana.

The Forest Service reported the Horse Shoe Lake fire, now covering more than 1,350 acres, literally blew up during strong afternoon winds, sweeping out of extensive fire lines in which fighters hoped to control the blaze.

The blaze encircled a crew of fire fighters. Bombers circled the men, covering trees with borate to cool the fire while helicopter snatched the men from the area.

High winds created renewed problems on fires in the Nezperce and Clearwater forests. In addition, lightning over the Nezperce started four new fires.

The Sleeping Child fire on the Idaho-Montana border roared uncontrolled over another 2,000 acres. This huge blaze now has covered an estimated 14,000 acres.

Thinks University's Request 'Phony'

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rep. J. H. Cottrell of Pulaski County today described a $10 million bond proposal for the University of Arkansas as "phony as a $3 bill."

He said half the bonds would be sold to the state and would not mature for 25 years.

"If the state can invest $5 million in bonds now, why can't it take that same $5 million and spend it for college construction without issuing the bonds?" he asked.

Cottrell also said he was unwilling to vote any money for the higher educational institutions until they are placed under an overall board of control.

Cottrell was plaintiff in litigation which resulted in nullification of the $14.5 omnibus expenditures law and was a leader in the successful campaign against the $60 million state construction bond proposal.

Crops Damaged at Blytheville

BLYTHEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Nearly 10,000 acres of crops—mostly cotton and soybeans—were heavily damaged in a weekend hail storm, county agent Keith Blythe said Monday. He said 3,600 acres received heavy damage and 6,000 acres suffered from 2 to 50 per cent damage.

New Engineer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Col. John C. Dalrymple, who has just completed a year's tour of duty in Korea, took over Monday as Little Rock District U.S. Army Engineer. He succeeds Col. Arthur M. Jacoby, who has been reassigned to France.

Perfect Luncheon Choice

Crisp Deviled Delights

A really tasty spread over crisp, saltine crackers is ideal for bridge club luncheons or parties. Here's a brand new one to add to your list. "Crisp Deviled Delights". It's a tangy blend of canned deviled ham, mustard and horseradish spread over crackers and garnished with sliced olives. At the last minute, the crackers are browned under a hot broiler for a treat that rivals caviar for unusual flavor. Make it for family lunches and snacks, too, this easy way:

Crisp Deviled Delights

- 1 can deviled ham, 2 1/2 ounces
- 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1 teaspoon prepared horseradish
- 14-16 whole Krispy saltine crackers
- 7-8 large stuffed olives, thinly sliced

Pre-heat broiler. Combine deviled ham with mustard and horseradish, blending well. Spread over whole crackers. Garnish tops with olive slices. Place on cookie sheet and broil, about 3 to 4 inches from source of heat, 3 to 4 minutes or until hot and brown around edges. Serve at once. Makes 7 to 8 servings.

More Stern Measures by E. Germans

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD

BERLIN (AP)—Stern measures against East Berliners who work in the Western sector of the city may be ordered by the Communist regime, an East Berlin official said today.

Waldemar Schmidt, deputy mayor of East Berlin, was asked by an interviewer from the Communist paper Berliner Zeitung whether the communists would eventually require state permission to work in the West.

Schmidt said registration was all that was being undertaken "for the time being." He said the campaign to register the estimated 80,000 communists would help them "realize their mistake," switch jobs to the East and help boost East Germany's dwindling manpower supply.

Registration is part of the campaign directed against the communists. It was ordered so authorities could keep track of all who work in the West but live in the Eastern sector and now must pay utility and other government bills in Western marks. Payment in West Germany currency, worth almost five times more than the Communist money, was ordered last week.

Schmidt claimed several hundred had already switched jobs. But hundreds of others have made another decision and joined the Westward flow of refugees. They preferred to abandon their homes in the East rather than give up job and seniority rights most had held for years.

A private Western intelligence agency reported that 28 people had been sentenced to prison in the past 10 days for inciting or helping refugees. They were accused of "luring away the labor force" and "organized head-hunting."

The hunt by strengthened Red police patrols for refugees went on. Many were detected and turned back before they could

State Bar Honored

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Louisiana State Bar Association today was awarded first place in the American Bar Association 1961 Award of Merit competition for its program "Victory through Education—Americanism vs. Communism."

The Arkansas Bar Association with its "Introduction to the Law and the Legal Profession" program received an honorable mention among the smaller bar associations.

reach the West Berlin escape hatch.

The flight of an East German high court judge, Horst Hietzner, was reported today. The League of Free Jurists, a West Berlin group documenting legal affairs in the East, said he arrived with his wife, children and several relatives—a party of 10 in all. The league said the judge explained he could no longer be responsible for the level of justice in East Germany, especially divorces granted without regard to the innocent party and the children.

Titov Object of Cheering in Moscow

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP)—Spaceman Gherman Titov arrived in Moscow today for a hero's welcome from millions of Russians and the biggest public kissing match in Soviet history.

In rapid succession the Soviet Union's second successful space traveler bussed Premier Khrushchev, the top officials of his country, his parents, and his wife. Thousands massed at Moscow's Vnukovo Airport cheered and waved. Children heaped armloads of flowers on the hero.

Titov was flown to Moscow from Saratov, the Volga River city near which his spaceship Vostok II landed Monday after orbiting the earth 17 times in just 25 hours.

His predecessor, pioneer cosmonaut Yuri Gagarin, was on hand at the airport to greet Titov and help him with the flowers.

Smiling and trim in his air force major's uniform, Titov, 26, climbed into an open car covered with flowers. His wife and Khrushchev rode with him at the head of a motorcade down the road into Moscow, which today was renamed "Road of the Cosmonauts."

The route was banked with flowers and bright sunlight bathed the city. Three portraits formed the central decoration at the airport—Lenin, Titov and Khrushchev. Titov in the center. Models of space ships and maps showing Titov's orbit were mingled among flags, streamers and slogans displayed on buildings, streetcars, buses and cars throughout the city.

Cheering crowds thronged the streets and packed Red Square. Before the kissing began, Titov delivered a brief report to Khrushchev.

"Comrade first secretary of the Central Committee of the Communist party of the Soviet Union, chairman of the Council of Ministers of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics—I report that the assignment of the Central Committee and Soviet government has been completed.

"On the 6th and 7th of August 1961, I carried out a 25-hour space flight in the spaceship Vostok II. I orbited the earth 17 times and landed safely exactly in the predetermined area.

"All the space ship's equipment worked without fault. I feel in excellent health and am prepared to carry out any assignment of the party and the government—Titov, major."

Then Titov and Khrushchev grabbed each other, grinning broadly, and the spaceman got the jump on the premier with an enthusiastic kiss on the mouth. When Gagarin made his triumphant return, Khrushchev did the kissing.

At the peak of Venice's power and prosperity in the 16th Century, some 10,000 gondolas glided along the canals. Gondolas now number around 500.

Absent Child Empties Home Completely

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Nothing empties a home more than an absent child.

Our home is in that plight now. Tracy Ann, our 8-year-old daughter, is spending a week in the suburbs visiting her two god-sisters, Nina and Leila Palmer.

"A vacation from us will do her good—and maybe us too," my wife, Frances, said cheerfully when we left her. Like most mothers, this time of summer, Frances can hardly wait for the school year to start again.

The first day of our vacation from our daughter wasn't bad at all.

"Isn't it restful?" said Frances. I had to admit it was restful—that first day.

But every waking hour in our home since then has brought a growing restlessness, a feeling of tension, a sense of something lacking.

Usually the apartment rings with sound from morning to night as Tracy and her playmates storm from one room to another. You can trail them by the bread crumbs they drop. They are laughing, weeping, feuding fiercely at their games one moment, playing happily together the next.

Now it is strangely silent. You can hear the clock ticking on the wall. You can hear water drip from the air conditioner of our neighbor above down on the air conditioner outside our window. You can hear the wind pulse the door.

"I miss our mouse," says Frances. "It's so quiet it makes me nervous." It makes me nervous, too. I walk into Tracy's room. It is too orderly. Her stuffed brown bear, Filigree, has that fixed look of loneliness all toys wear when they aren't in children's hands. Toys come to life only when they are picked up and held.

The empty room gives me an empty feeling.

No one there to remind, "Can't you ever learn to pick up your things? This room is a mess." No one to put a bandage on and say to, "Don't cry, honey, it'll feel better in a moment."

But the one mist restless of all is Lady Dottie, our cat. She mopes around the place saying "meow." She rubs against my legs. She leaps up into my wife's lap, pauses, then leaps down.

When none of us can stand it any longer, I go to the phone and call the suburbs and ask for Tracy.

"Lady Dottie says it's awfully lonesome here without you," I tell her craftily. "Don't you think it's about time—"

"I miss her, too," breaks in Tracy breathlessly. "And I miss you and Mommy, but, please, can't I stay a couple more days? I'm having a lot of fun, and—"

"Well, if you really want to," and I hang up reluctantly.

Tracy isn't homesick. We are—sick at home without her. But I guess the experience is a kind of necessary growing-up ordeal for us, a prelude to the longer time of emptiness when the child becomes an adult and goes away for good.

How do parents ever learn to endure that?

The cult of Isis, which promised immortality and bodily resurrection, spread from Egypt to Greece, Rome and Britain, challenging Christianity for a time.

Sweet and Clean—and Lovely

At any age there's nothing as wonderful as a clean after-the-bath feeling followed by soft, fluffy towels to wrap up in. There's a world of comfort, too, in having a soft, thirsty bath mat underfoot. Little Maryanne expects her towels to be soft, never scratchy or stiff, because her mother uses NuSoft fabric softener on them every time they're laundered. Maryanne often "helps" pour the bottle capful of concentrated liquid into the washing machine during the final rinse; she likes its fresh odor and what it does to everything washable. Not only does it make the towels like-new, it makes her socks and panties smooth and comfortable and her dresses wrinkle resistant. Her mother likes it, too, because she's found it cuts ironing time almost in half and ends static cling by slips and petticoats.

Forest Fire in Far North Out of Hand

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (AP)—A two-month-old forest fire blazed less than five miles from three Bonavista Bay communities today. Residents fled by helicopter and boat.

Firefighters in smoke masks fought to keep the flames from Musgrave Harbor. Boating Cove and Ragged Harbor on the east coast bay 90 miles north of St. John's.

A slight shift in wind could bring the fire roaring into the communities just a few miles apart. With no rain in sight there was no immediate prospect of help from the weather.

Invalids among the 2,000 threatened residents were flown by Canadian air force helicopters Tuesday to Gander 30 miles away. Women and children boarded coastal steamers for Fogo Island off the coast.

A fourth community on the edge of the fire, Carmanville, also was threatened but residents

Deaths Around the Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

MORGANTON, N.C. (AP)—Henry H. Koster, 65, one of the top designers in the furniture industry, died Tuesday. Koster, who had suffered a heart attack last Saturday, was supervisor of design for the Drexel Furniture Company for 25 years. He was born in Brooklyn, N.Y.

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Kate M. Hattstaedt, 106, widow of the founder of Chicago's famed American Conservatory of Music, died Monday. The conservatory, founded by her husband, John J. Hattstaedt, in 1870, is now headed by her son, John. She was born in Beloit, Wis.

There were not leaving yet.

The fire started June 12 and spread over a 400-square-mile area of fire and space pulpwood. A section of the community of Hare Bay already has been destroyed.

Premier J. R. Smallwood flew over the area and called the fire "just about the most horrible thing that has ever happened to Newfoundland."

NATO Plans to Propose Berlin Meet

By JOSEPH E. DYNAN

PARIS (AP)—The United States and its top Western allies are planning to advance a proposal within the next few weeks for a meeting with the Soviet Union on Berlin and Germany—if the Russians fail to propose one first.

Highly placed Western informants today gave an outline of diplomatic maneuvers on the Berlin crisis. American, British, French and West German foreign ministers discussed the moves during the weekend. That was followed by a briefing for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Council by U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

The timing of a call for negotiations on Berlin is a delicate matter involving tactical advantages. The decision has been coupled with plans for a Western military buildup to confront Soviet threats. The Western diplomatic move probably will be launched after the West German elections on Sept. 17 and after Western firm-

Make Two—Take One!

On lazy summer days double-duty cooking makes a lot of sense. If you're planning to make a meat loaf one of these days, why not make a second one at the same time, freeze it, and you'll have it ready for picnic sandwiches, late-night snacks, or the children's supper when you're dining out. This is a great idea in planning ahead for the long Labor Day weekend coming up.

No longer an orphan of the oven, meat loaf has taken its rightful place at the family table. There are probably as many tasty ways to put a meat loaf together as there are states in the Union, and if you haven't tried making one with beer here's a new recipe to add to your collection. Beer or ale is used as the liquid ingredient; they are interchangeable in cooking, and the tang of this delicious beverage will heighten the meat flavors.

Beer is the natural, thirst-quenching beverage to serve with the hot meat loaf or carry chilled to your favorite picnic spot to quaff with the meat loaf sandwiches some other day.

Tangy Meat Loaf

- 1 egg
- 1/4 cup beer or ale
- 1/2 teaspoon Tabasco
- 2 cups soft bread crumbs
- 1 medium onion, minced
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1 teaspoon dry mustard
- 1/4 teaspoon ground thyme or marjoram
- 1 1/2 pounds ground chuck
- 1/2 pound ground pork shoulder

Beat egg slightly with fork in mixing bowl. Stir in beer and Tabasco. Add bread crumbs, onion, seasonings and meat; mix with fork, until blended. Pack into 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pan and bake in moderate oven (375°F.) 1 hour and 15 minutes. Yield: 8 servings.

Girl 5, Clubs Her Sister to Death

WALTON, N.Y. (AP)—A 5-year-old girl clubbed her younger sister to death with a toilet-seat cover less than a month after the younger child had been found crammed in an earthenware crock, a district attorney says.

Dist. Atty. Richard Farley said Patricia Kirk may have been jealous of her 2 1/2-year-old sister, Lois, or have held a grievance against her. Lois' crying often annoyed Patricia, he said.

Lois died in a hospital Sunday, nine hours after her parents found her unconscious in a bed she shared with Patricia and a brother, Wesley, 3 1/2, in the family's trailer home in this Catskill Mountain community.

Patricia admitted hitting Lois on the head with a toilet-seat cover—she called it "a pretty stick"—sometime between 11 p.m. Saturday and 8 a.m. Sunday, Farley said.

On July 18, he said, Patricia apparently took Lois from the trailer to a nearby shed and either placed or helped her into a 20-gallon crock. When Lois was found by a neighbor about two hours later, her head was covered with blankets and a suitcase.

The district attorney said Patricia had a "wild imagination," and was "very mixed up emotionally."

The child seldom talked to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Kirk, and would confide only in her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ezra Burgher of Oneonta, with whom she now is staying, Farley said.

Dr. Harry Wilbur, Delaware County coroner, ruled the death a homicide.

Stolen Kiss Proves Costly

ROVIGO, Italy (AP)—Gin Bergantini and Giovanna Mancini stole a kiss on the dance floor and a watchful policeman charged them with behaving obscenely in a public place.

A court at Caverzere, a village not far from this north Italian town, found Gino, 21, and Giovanna, 20, guilty Monday. Each was fined 10,000 lire—$16.

They got off light. A month ago a Rome court sentenced two young lovers to two months in jail for a goodby kiss at a street-car stop.

Dies in House Fire

BENTON, Ark. (AP)—Rowdy Delvan Ford, a 2 1/2-month-old Negro child who was left in the care of other children while his mother went to town, died Tuesday in a fire which gutted his frame home here, police said. He was the child of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Ford.

Berryville to Vote

BERRYVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Berryville residents will vote Aug. 29 on proposed bond issues totaling 147,500 to finance a garment factory here. The Wall Garment Co., of Kansas City proposes to hire 190 persons in the plant.

ness has been made evident. Other factors in the timing are the October Communist party Congress in Moscow and the U.N. General Assembly session opening in September.

Rusk already has given the NATO Council an outline of the diplomatic plans.

Ford Workers Got More, Firm Says

By A. F. MAHAN

DETROIT (AP)—The Ford Motor Co. told its 165,000 employees today their average pay last year was 71 cents an hour higher than the average for all employees of the manufacturing industry.

Ford, acting in the midst of new labor contract negotiations in the car industry, distributed to its workers a booklet titled "Facts on the Line" which emphasized management responsibilities.

The United Auto Workers Union currently is negotiating new contracts with Ford and others. Present contracts expire Aug. 31.

The UAW International Executive Board is to be asked Sunday to authorize strike votes at General Motors and Chrysler. There has been no similar action at Ford.

The UAW today began a billboard campaign aimed at swaying public opinion to its side in the negotiations. Bonuses paid to Ford officials and Ford's profits were singled out for mention.

One UAW billboard said in a newspaper-type headline "33.6 million in bonuses paid to Ford officials."

"Ford 1960 profits 703 million," the ad also said. UAW Ford locals are paying for the billboards.

Ford, in distributing its booklet, made no reference to the contract negotiations.

The 12-page illustrated booklet also mentioned competition and the requirement on management to keep pace and necessity for profits which it said "make it possible to pay wages and salaries."

A chart in the booklet indicated a relationship between sales of Ford products and Ford's amount of employment.

Space Hero Welcomed by Moscow

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet spaceman Gherman Titov returned to Moscow today for a hero's welcome, kissed his welcomers right and left and warned that if the "enemies of peace unleash another war, the Soviet Union has the wherewithal to crush the aggressor."

Standing atop the Lenin-Stalin tomb, the 26-year-old Titov told the applauding multitude jamming Red Square his space flight was dedicated to peaceful purposes and "we use our mighty rocket technique for the sake of progress."

But, he added, "We have all the means necessary to rebut an imperialist attack, and I as a military pilot am ready to fulfill any task given me by the Communist party and the government."

Titov said that his space ship, although completely automatically controlled, could be guided by manual controls to a landing on any spot on the globe.

The young Communist said he was particularly glad to serve as a member of the Soviet Communist party and that he would be a "faithful son of the party until the very end of my life."

Premier Khrushchev, standing at the spaceman's elbow, led the applause after each of Titov's sentences.

The Soviet premier, following the new Soviet hero to the microphone, said it was symbolic of the greatness of the Communist party that for the second time Moscow was greeting a Russian newly returned from space.

The first Soviet cosmonaut, Maj. Yuri Gagarin, stood nearby and shared in the plaudits.

Titov was flown to Moscow from Saratov, a Volga River city near which his space ship was reported to have landed Monday after orbiting the earth 17 1/2 times in 25 hours.

He hugged Khrushchev, top officials of his country, his parents and his wife. Children heaped flowers on the hero in the wild reception at the airport.

Maria Was in Rare Singing Form

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Maria Callas was in rare singing and acting form Sunday night, Athens music critics ruled today. She appeared in Cherubini's opera, "Medea."

More than 17,000 were present to hear her in the ancient open air theater of Epidaurus, 100 miles from Athens.

"Callas' interpretation was not only superb in voice but in acting as well," said one critic.

Mother of Eight Stabbed to Death

DUMAS, Ark. (AP)—Mrs. Libby Andrews, 36, Negro mother of eight, was stabbed to death Monday. Police sought Leander Lee, 60, a Negro city employee, Police Chief Jess Willis said. Willis said the stabbing occurred after an argument at the Andrews home.

are represented by the auto union. On wages, the booklet said that in 1960 the manufacturing industry average pay was $2.29 cents an hour while the Ford average was $3.

The UAW-Industry contract talks are nearing the crucial stage. The industry has served notice it won't agree to new contracts that would be inflationary or cause higher car prices.

Strictly From Funsville!

When planning any teen-ager party one major decision pertains to food. There are three musts about party food. It must taste terrific, it must have a "party look" (though a casual one) and it must require practically no clean-up after the fact. The food itself has vanished. So here's an answer covering all the above. Directions are for two couples, with a spare Submarine to be divided among those with hollow legs. If inviting more couples, multiply accordingly.

Submarine Specials

Cut five small loaves of Italian bread in half, lengthwise. In layers on bread arrange slices of salami, bologna and American cheese and rings of Bermuda onion. Combine 1/2 cup real mayonnaise and 1/2 cup of tomato ketchup or chili sauce. Spoon sauce over filling. Cut each Submarine into thirds and serve on aluminum foil.

As to ice cream, it's usually wise to figure on at least a quart for four people, particularly when two are hungry males. The following wondrous topping makes each serving even more filling and delicious. It's good on plain cake, too.

Peanut Butter Dessert Sauce

1/2 cup chunk-style peanut butter
1/2 cup corn syrup
Blend peanut butter and either light or dark syrup thoroughly. Makes: 1 cup, or 4 generous servings.

Science at Work in Many Fields Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

• Mother's milk and how fast babies grow, ocean-borne seeds from the tropics and a new electronic interpreter are subjects for science at work.

Nature's Diet
You apparently can't host the growth rate of a baby by increasing the amount of protein in the milk it receives.

Scientists have found that infants on mother's milk grow just about as fast as those on formulas of cows' milk which have twice or three times the amount of protein.

Nature conservatively has limited the amount of protein in mother's milk of most animals, scientists say. This benefits the mother whose body does not have to deprive itself of nutrients to feed the offspring. Other studies have shown the limited amount of protein leads to a healthier offspring as well.

Far From Home
New Zealand farmers living near Ninety Mile Beach found large numbers of tropical fruits and seeds washed ashore during the winter of 1950, carried there by the meandering ocean currents.

Scientists who received some of the seeds raised the resulting plants in greenhouses. One of the plants is now a 12-foot vine.

But the seeds would not have fared very well, if they hadn't had human help. Some of them were well rotted when they finally came to shore. Others probably would never have survived

A Seagoing Summer Recipe

Summertime calls for light but energy-giving family meals. Wakefield's frozen Alaska King Crab, high in protein, rich with iodine and muscle-building calcium, makes delightful hot-weather dishes.

KING CRAB TOMATO SALAD

4 large tomatoes, skinned
1 green pepper
1/2 cup diced celery
1/2 cup diced cucumber
1 pkg. (6 oz.) frozen Alaska King Crab Meat
3/4 cup mayonnaise
Salt and pepper to taste
Defrost crab meat and drain thoroughly. Cut a slice from the stem end of each tomato, and hollow out the inside to form a shell. Dice the tomato pulp. Chop the green pepper. Mix the diced tomato pulp, green pepper, celery, cucumber, crab meat and mayonnaise. Season to taste. Fill tomato shells with the mixture and garnish with anchovies or rings of green pepper.

on the exposed sand dunes of Ninety Mile Beach.

Bi-Lingual Radio

Some 16 Venezuelan students at the University of Michigan can now converse with their professor without ever hearing his voice.

They wear portable, wireless radio units that permit them to speak and hear as well. When they have a question, they ask it in Spanish, and an interpreter receiving the question passes it on to the professor. The professor answers in English, and the interpreter passes the answer on in Spanish.

The students, equipped with earphones, hear only the interpreter in question and answer periods and in lectures. The device also has proved useful in adverse noise conditions, such as visits to factories.

Survivors of Tragedy Are Back Home

NEW YORK (AP) — Nine survivors of the near tragedy in Switzerland last week are back in this country with vivid memories of their brush with death.

Several credited an air pocket with saving them when their tour bus plunged from a rain-drenched road into the icy waters of Lake Lucerne.

"When I came to in the bus there was about a foot of air space," said Pauline Hudson of Altoona, Pa. "A girl rolled down a window and I got out."

Mrs. Hudson wept in speaking of her friend, Julia Schultz, also of Altoona. She was one of 16 American tourists who apparently died in the lake's icy waters. Only eight bodies have been recovered.

Two of the nine who arrived at Idlewild Airport Tuesday had been injured in the bus crash—Margaret Mitchell of Oxford, N.C., and Martha Isaacs of Washington, D.C.

Mrs. Mitchell, transferred by stretcher to a plane bound for Raleigh, N.C., suffered a fractured pelvis.

Mrs. Isaacs, badly bruised, traveled in a wheel chair. She was transferred to another flight for the last leg of her trip home.

Caroline Blair Crowther, 24, a Tampa, Fla., teacher, said "there was just enough of an air pocket in which to breathe. I really thought I was going to die."

Other returning survivors included Katherine Owens of Vandergrift, Pa.; Hermina Hunsberger of Norristown, Pa., and her

Chicken, Ham Rate Good as Market Buys

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ham, a traditional hot weather favorite, ranks high this week among weekend specials offered by supermarkets and neighborhood stores.

Other pork cuts on the bargain list include chops, loins and smoked butts.

Beef specials include chuck, rib and pot roasts, standing ribs and sirloin steak.

Lamb legs are featured in widely scattered areas.

In the fowl department, the specials are frying chickens, barbecued chickens, chicken parts, ducks and turkeys.

Scallops are the most widely advertised fish items.

While lettuce currently is among the best vegetable buys, its price is expected to go up, making salads more costly. California farmers are limiting output in an effort to boost prices.

Other best buys are beets, cabbage, cauliflower, corn, eggplant, nearby lettuce, peppers, tomatoes, Eastern potatoes and yellow squash.

Considered good buys are beans, carrots, cucumbers, escarole, endive, green and dry onions, parsley, okra, California potatoes and green squash.

Limes, cherries, cantaloupe, lemons and nectarines are best buys among fruits.

Good fruit buys are apples, avocados, blueberries, mangoes, peaches, grapes and oranges.

Totalitarian Government in Cuba Now

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—If you need any example of what happens when a totalitarian government takes over a country, Cuban Prime Minister Castro is up today with a fresh one.

A totalitarian government may be Fascist, Communist or what Castro calls Cuba's own brand of socialism. The one thing in common is that the state is dominant, not its citizens.

First, large private property holdings are confiscated in one form or another, with or without vague promises of compensation later. American firms suffered the loss of millions of dollars in assets and sales this way. One estimate is that American-owned property on the island was worth $861 million.

Next, cash holdings are gathered in by the simple device of declaring the old currency void and issuing a new currency—but only up to a small part of the total that any person above the lowest income brackets might have. The government keeps all but a minimum of the amount turned in.

How much of a loss this will be to Americans is unknown. Most U.S. corporations and individuals presumably have put their pesos into other currencies or investments long since.

But doubtless many Cuban refugees estimate that 400 million of the old pesos are held outside the island, and thus became worthless over the weekend. Castro says most of this was taken to the United States by refugees.

The Cuban moves are in the classic pattern. They enable the Castro regime to get its hands on the property and cash of all but the poorest citizens.

They also help to halt, at least temporarily, the impending inflation caused by a growing shortage of some goods and foodstuffs on the island, which could command high prices on the black market—if people had pesos with which to buy.

The peso officially has been carried as the equal of the Yankee dollar, and formerly was freely exchangeable on that basis. But of late one foreign exchange dealer in New York has been willing to pay only 16 American cents for one Cuban peso. It says it has kept the peso on its list only because it wants to maintain its record of dealing in all foreign currencies.

Trade with Cuba has dwindled to a trickle. The United States cut off imports of Cuban sugar. We now import only tobacco, fruit and sugar molasses. And we send Cuba only food, medicine and medical supplies.

The Cuban government has an estimated $3 billion here in various assets. Individual Cubans, most of them refugees now, are said to have about $58 million. But these are valued in Yankee dollars and not subject to the Cuban peso confiscation.

In 1888 the Orient Express established a daily connection between Vienna and Istanbul. Average speed of the express in this section was 21 miles an hour.

daughter, Nancy; Helen Egleson of Norristown, and Mildred McKown of Vandergrift.

Ten other survivors are returning by ship.

Committee to Probe Market

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Manager Gene Mauch of Philadelphia today was nursing a black left eye and his counterpart, Danny Murtaugh of Pittsburgh, a spike wound of the neck after the two acted as peacemakers in a wild melee between players of the two clubs.

The brawl broke out Tuesday night during the sixth inning of a two-inning doubleheader when catcher Hal Smith of the Pirates put an extra hard tag on Phillies' outfielder Tony Gonzalez who tried to score from second on a single by Clay Dalrymple.

Smith fell on Gonzalez and both players came up with fists swinging. Players, managers and coaches from both teams swarmed into the field and at least seven different fights erupted.

Mauch and Murtaugh were the only ones injured and no one seemed to know who did the damage. They and police finally broke up the free-for-all which lasted nearly 10 minutes.

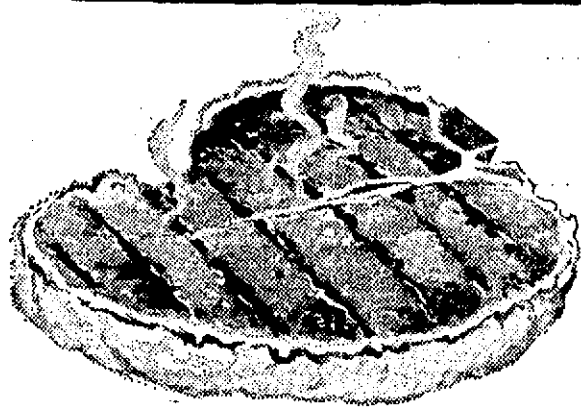

Umpire Frank Dascoli ordered three policemen stationed at each dugout until the end of the game to prevent a further outbreak.

After the game, which the Pirates won 3-2 after taking the opener 10-2, a veteran sports remarked to Murtaugh in the dressing room that it was the best fight he ever saw. "I wouldn't know," said Murtaugh. "I was on the bottom of the pile and didn't see a thing." After the melee, Mauch argued with plate umpire Frank Secory that Smith should be ejected from the game. Mauch announced the game was being played under protest but later in the dressing room the Phillies manager said he was withdrawing his protest.
